

ARC-FLASH REPORTS AND LABELS FOR YOUR FACILITY

WHEN IS IT REQUIRED?

- Every Five Years – The maximum interval per NFPA 70E between reviewing and updating site arc-flash analysis data and labeling
- Upon Adding Equipment

WHY ZAP?

- We are Experienced and Flexible
- Four Electrical Licensed Professional Engineers in 20+ States
- ZAP Arc-Flash Hazard Warning Labels Compliant to OSHA, MSHA, NFPA 70, and NFPA 70E Requirements
 - ZAP Standard 4x6 inch Label Template (shown on cover)
 - Ability to Customize Label Templates for Clients
- ZAP Arc-Flash Analysis per NFPA 70E and IEEE 1584 Methodology
 - Short Circuit Analysis
 - Protective Device Coordination Study
 - Detailed Engineering Report
 - Customizable to Your Safety Requirements

SOFTWARE CAPABILITIES

- ETAP
- SKM Power*Tools

Native software model files provided with analysis at client request

EXPERIENCE AND CAPABILITIES

INCLUDE:

- Oil & Gas Facilities
- Mineral Processing Facilities
- Cement & Mining Facilities
- Commercial Facilities
- Chemical Processing Facilities
- Bulk Material Handling Plants and Terminals
- Any New or Existing Facility with Electrical Equipment!

COMMERCIAL INQUIRIES

Shane Wilson

wilsons@zapecs.com
720.644.3370

Evan Anundsen

anundsene@zapecs.com
303.656.4829

TECHNICAL INQUIRIES

David Bicknase

bicknased@zapecs.com
720.644.3379

Cindy Castilow

castilowc@zapecs.com
303.565.5573

